Why we want you

An important part of cycling is being able to look after your cycle or know where to get help to fix it. You can help people in your area, by providing advice on how they look after their bicycle and offer your help to repair it. You will actively support people in your community to cycle more on their everyday journeys in your area.

What you will be doing

- Do bicycle repairs for people in your area (tools are provided)
- Provide helpful tips to people on how to look after their bicycles, if needed

The skills you need

- Ability and knowledge to do basic bicycle maintenance
- Velotech Silver, Gold or similar formal accreditation is required

What's in it for you

- Develop your bicycle mechanic skills and practical knowledge
- Meet new people from your area
- Be an active part in improving the health and wellbeing of people in your community by supporting them to ride their bicycles
- Opportunity to access our online volunteering platform, where you can collect details of your activities, find events, connect with people in your area, share your volunteering stories, read Sustrans news, have access to free training and more.
