Where you will be based

Community

Why we want you

The National Cycle Network is a network of paths and routes in your community that are used for walking, cycling, wheeling and exploring the outdoors. People help care for and look after the Network in their local area. You can do tasks that help people to walk, cycle and wheel more easily while also benefitting wildlife and the environment.

What you will be doing

- Supporting the care of the National Cycle Network in your community by doing different tasks
- Helping keep the Network tidy for people and wildlife, by picking up litter from the path and surrounding area
- Encouraging people in your community to walk, wheel or cycle every day by looking after the paths

The skills you need

- N/A

What's in it for you

- Get active and enjoy the fresh air doing outdoor activities
- Improve your understanding of looking after community areas
- Have a positive impact on your local environment and community
- Meet new people from your area, if interested
- Opportunity to access our online volunteering platform, where you can collect details of your activities, find events, connect with people in your area, share your volunteering stories, read Sustrans news, have access to free training and more.
